Overview

The Brooke Associate Teacher Scholarship is designed to provide supplementary aid to strong Associate Teacher candidates who have faced adversity in their own lives and who could most benefit from additional financial support as Associate Teachers. For the 2015-16 School Year, Brooke schools will distribute a maximum of ten $15,000 scholarships to qualified individuals. A team of Brooke staff will review and award those scholarships on the basis of the answers provided to the three questions on this application. For more information on the Associate Teacher program, visit <http://www.ebrooke.org/join-our-team/associate-teacher-program/>.
